PAINS SHARP AND STABBING

Woman Thought She Would Die. Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Ogdensburg, Wis.—"I suffered from female troubles which caused piercing pains like a knife through my back and side. I finally lost all my strength, so I had to go to bed. The doctor advised an operation but I would not listen to it. I thought of what I had read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and tried the first bottle brought great relief and six bottles have entirely cured me. All women who have female trouble of any kind should try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. ETTA DORON, Ogdensburg, Wis.

Physicians undoubtedly did their best, battled with this case steadily and could do no more, but often the most scientific treatment is surpassed by the medicinal properties of the old-fashioned roots and herbs contained in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If any complication exists it pays to write the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for special free advice.

Prominent Local Women Bitterly Criticize "Annoyance to President"

The action of the suffragists who marched around the White House Sunday in the rain, and who afterwards held a meeting which President Wilson was criticized, brought forth vigorous denunciations from women of the National Capital.

Mrs. Robert W. Lansing, wife of the Secretary of State, said: "I strongly disapprove of their actions, especially at this time."

Mrs. James W. Wadsworth, wife of Senator Wadsworth, of New York, said: "The suffrage program is an unparliamentary act. It is futile. Their persistent persecution of the President is most unbecomingly and childish. It is indicative of the tactics these women would adopt after they have the vote. They would never accept anything decided by the votes of the people, but would attempt to gain their ends by force of organized annoyance. Militants who put suffrage first, and annoy the President at such a time, disgrace womankind."

Mrs. Arthur M. Dodge, of New York, president of the National Association Opposed to Woman Suffrage, declared: "The most significant thing, in my opinion, is the purpose these women announced beforehand. 'Come to the White House,' they asked women, in circulars sent all over the country, to join a delegation 'who will ask the women be enfranchised before action is taken by the government on war or any other question.'"

"In other words, these women asked their sisters to help them paralyze the United States government until they got what they want. This is the spirit of the anarchist, the pacifist, and other radicals who are willing to hold up a government or a people to enforce a minority opinion, or an unparliamentary idea."

Mrs. Augustus P. Gardner, wife of Representative Gardner, of Massachusetts, said:

"It is a disgrace to womankind and discreditable. It is not the way for women to arrive at anything they desire, but a way for them to discredit their sex."

Mrs. Edward P. Dickinson, of Massachusetts, declared:

"It is a disgrace to womankind that there are any women to annoy the chief executive in these perilous times."

Mrs. Arthur Dunn, chairman of the executive committee of the District Anti-Suffrage Association, said:

"Women who indulge in such childish stunts do themselves a disservice, and duty, political or domestic. It was a pitiable exhibition of mental inefficiency."

ANTISCENT PLOT IN RAID ON CAKES

Did the suffragists eat up the anti-suffragist cakes?

There were deep suspicions yesterday around 1219 Pennsylvania avenue, where the antis have had a rest room for visitors, that the suffragists had laid a crafty scheme.

The antis laid in 400 cakes and 400 pots of tea yesterday morning for hungry enthusiasts.

The headquarters had scarcely opened when young ladies, of the militant type, began to swoop down on anti headquarters just as if they had known all about it. The 400 cakes and 400 pots of tea were gobbled up in an amazingly short time.

When the cakes were all gone the anti-ladies got suspicious. And they are still suspicious.

HOROSCOPE.

Wednesday, March 7, 1917.

According to astrology Mars and Venus are strongly adverse in the early hours of this day, but Jupiter rules strongly for good during the busiest hours.

It is held to be a lucky way for buying and speculation, if conducted with care.

Banking and finance have the best possible direction. There is a sign read promising benefits from Latin-American enterprises.

Judges and lawyers have a favorable sway while this configuration prevails. Honor for a famous jurist who will occupy a diplomatic post is predicted.

Unexpected negotiations between Canada and the United States are prognosticated. There may be trouble over some question affecting the boundaries.

This is not a promising sign for military matters. Serious discontent among citizen soldiers and even open criticism of government policies may bring about serious exposures and produce scandals.

Women should be cautious in all business affairs today and those who deal with them may be disappointed.

It is not an auspicious time for love affairs. Engagements made under this sway may be most unlucky.

While this configuration prevails women are likely to be mercenary and difficult to influence through the affections.

Astrologers find in the lunation for May little hope of peace and diplomatic blunders are indicated for England.

Through a higher degree of inspiration, music and art are to progress greatly in the United States this year, all classes developing new interest in the finer things of life.

The establishment of centers for groups of persons working along special lines in the drama, literature and education is predicted by the seers.

Persons whose birthdate it is have a year in which they will succeed by the exercise of unusual care and application. Letters may cause anxiety and domestic affairs may be unhappy.

Children born on this day may be easy-going and careless, but lucky in business. These subjects of Pisces have Neptune as their principal ruling planet.

CULVER CADETS BANQUETED.

Alumni Compliments Cadets on Their Drill Proficiency.

K. K. Culver, of the board of trustees of the Culver Military Academy of Indiana, spoke Monday night at a banquet to the alumni of the school and the members of the Black Horse Troop, at the Ebbitt House. The alumni presented the cadets with a letter complimenting them upon their excellency in drill and their fine showing in the inaugural parade. Brief remarks were made by Maj. J. Q. Briese, Capt. F. L. Hunt and Capt. R. R. Rief, leader of the Black Horse Troop.

CLEAR $5 ON POTATO DEAL.

Jeannette, Pa., March 6.—Nicholas Merrell laid in his supply of potatoes for the winter early in the fall of 1916, paying $15 for them. After feeding a family of six all winter with the daily ration of potatoes, Merrell found yesterday he had enough left to bring him a profit of $5 over the purchase price if he sold at the prevailing figures.

Figuring he was already a big winner in his potato deal, Merrell sold and pocketed his extra profit.

CAN'T FIND ANY SNAKES FOR ANACONDAS TO EAT

The big snakes at the zoo have felt the high cost of living.

The best food for anacondas and other big snakes is little snakes. These little snakes are caught mostly in the Everglades in Florida by guides, who make this money on the side while showing tourists around. This year the tourist travel fell off and the guides had to go to work.

The keeper at the zoo said yesterday that it was practically impossible to get small snakes these days, and that he was hard driven to know what to feed the big boys.

The big anaconda, which eats only once a month, likes a live chicken, but the other big snakes want their little snakes.

A BRONCHIAL HARD COLD

Yields to the Tonic Influence of Vinol.

Philadelphia, Pa.—"Last Fall I was troubled with a very severe bronchial cold, headache, backache, and sick to my stomach. I was so bad I became alarmed and tried several medicines, also a doctor, but did not get any relief. A friend asked me to try Vinol, and it brought the relief which I craved, so now I am enjoying perfect health."—Jack C. Singleton.

The reason that cough syrups fail in such cases is because they are palliative only, while Vinol removes the cause, being a constitutional remedy in which are combined beef and cod liver peptonates and glycerophosphates. It strengthens and revitalizes the entire system and assists nature to expel the disease.
